So hard just getting through each day
When you just can't win
You never get your way
Denied of all the things you need
Well it makes you want to die
Just take your chances baby roll the dice
Got to find yourself a way
You won't be happy 'til you get it right
You won't rest until that day
Sometimes you know it all goes wrong
Nothing's making sense
But I still go on
Who knows, nobody's got the answer
But one thing is for sure
I take my chances and I roll the dice
Got to find myself a way
I won't be happy 'til I get it right
I won't rest until that day
Don't wanna tell you what to do
What's good for me might not be good for you
When life becomes a lonely town

Don't let it get you down
