Take your time
Your up and down
You fill my head up
With your stories
Face to face
You tell me lies
I'd love to trace
Some of your stories, your stories
Some of your stories
I want to know
Where you go
You're out all night
Don't give me no stories
You twist my mind
It's confusing time
I think I'm all caught up in
One of your stories, your stories
In one of your stories
Your lies
You know you shouldn't be lying
Your eyes

Gave away what you were hiding
Hey can't you see that it's wrong
Your lies
Our love was mistreated
Your eyes
Had me close to believing
I think I've been here much too long
There's just so much
That a man can take
I've heard enough of
All of your stories
Step back and see
What you've done to me
Getting all caught up in
Some of your stories, your stories
In one of your stories, your stories
In one of your stories
I guess I didn't see it comin'
Well I was busy doing nothin'
I'm sorry I don't understand
'Cause over and over again and again
