ring... Information, New York City, May I help you?)

Miss Information there's a girl from queens

That I'm trying to call

She promised that she'd get in touch with me

And I've waited too long

It's crazy for sure

I've never felt this way before

This must be love

Something suddenly just came over me

This must be love

Tell me what else can it be

Somebody tell me what am I to do

Is she hopelessly gone?

If I had said "Now honey, I'll call you"

She would be in my arms

It's crazed but it's so

I've got a feeling that won't let go

This must be love

Is it love that makes me feel this way?

This must be love

I gotta find that girl today

I guess I've wasted my time

I hope she calls me before I lose my mind

This must be love

I can finally say

This must be love (yeah)

This must be love (I'm so glad, I'm so glad)

This must be love
