I see a girl warm as sunshine

Never been kissed before but she wants to try

I want the shadows and candles to dance in her eyes

Let my love in, white and red

Don't you pretend, white and red

She's just a child on the inside

But she'll be a young woman soon so she can't run and hide

I brush back her hair and then wipe off those tears in her eyes

Sing me to sleep, white and red

It's not a dream, white and red

I'll never leave, white and red

Now you're a part of me, white and red
