Can I put you in a different place
Somewhere deep so I can see your face
Can I put you in a different place
Somewhere deep
I'm not your type

Can I put the things you gave me
Somewhere deep you know, save me
Can I put the things you gave me
Somewhere safe
I'm not your type

Even when you go, even when you go
I'm sick inside of breathing
I'm sick inside of breathing

Why can't I think of something else
Why can't I think of something else
Can I think of something else
Why can't I think of something else
Why can't I think of something else
Why can't I think of something else

Can I put you in a different place
Somewhere deep so I can see your face
Why can't I think of something else
Why can't I think of something else
