Falling down
You pick me up
When I fall
Don't let me
Tell me

'Cause I can't think of all the things to think of
The things to do
So I just sit here while the spotlight shines on you

Once in a while you just fade away
And your gone forever
So lead me away and take me back
I am the way to nothing
It's never and everything
That means something to you

And you've got things to do
I think I'll stay here and watch you choose
And you've got things to do
I think I'll stay here and watch you choose

Once in a while you just fade away
And your gone forever
And I can't think of all the things to think of Things to do
So I just sit here and wonder
There's nothing else that I can do
