Just the other night
Body twisted and unfound
You know it's there lying

They are too dead but the body don't mind

Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
You know a neutral sky
And nothing to do at night
Little highway lights
They shine
From the top of the mountain to the rock and sand

Drive a dead farther west til they ran out of land
We walked five whole minutes to the dark edge of town
Took a long look at nothing and turned back around
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
You know the neutral sky
And nothing to do at night
Little highway lights
They shine

Under the new sun now
There coming only alive
I might be here all the time
And i share no body no mind

Under the new sun now
There coming only alive
I might be here all the time
And i share no body no mind

From the top of the mountain to the rotten sand We're driving back, while we're west until it ran out of land

Took a long look at nothing and turned back around
