"This Time"

by the Sundogs

Do you ever get afraid of love

When it starts to go your way

And do you ever get afraid of me

When I say the things I say

'Cause some people never learn

To let their feelings show

So I'll sing my song out loud

And I'll tell you I'm so proud

That you are here with me tonight

And I'm trying hard to make it right

This time

Do you ever think about someone

Who just won't leave your mind

And do you ever wait around too long

Just looking for a sign

'Cause some people never learn

To let their feelings show

So I'll sing my song out loud

And I'll tell you I'm so proud

That you are here with me tonight
And I'm trying hard to make it right
This time
You can walk on fire
And never feel the pain
As long as you can leave behind
The one who lit the flame
And the one who lit the flame
Is me
