"Now I Fall"

Visit "Now I Fall" on MotoLyrics.com sometimes i can't fall asleep you lie beside me and i weep dancing shadow on the wall once you caught me ... now i fall sometimes i feel love and trust turn to anger and disgust crawling darkness in between no light in reach ... no silver sheen sometimes i feel so ashamed to be mercilessly framed idle hands and eyes that stare but no escape that i would dare .. love and trust ... pain increasing every day no truth left i won't betray one day our way leads to an end why do i cry ... i understand that it's too late for me to go i should have left you years ago beyond this point of no return hatred's flame will ever burn

.. every day ...
