-Dude did you hear the SuperChi[k] is playing prom-

~Chorus~

Its high school

Dead Beat

Minime of the rest of society

There's always a prom queen

Always be-Always be soroities

And sadly some will be externaly

Keeping score of popularity

Just cuz we argue dosen't mean we havta

Act like we're in High School

Doesn't mean we havta act like we're in high school

High school is like a big competition

Beauty Contests

Prom court is the mission

There can only be one queen one king

Everyone voting Everyone competing

These are the rules the ways of high school

Someone put you down its so high school

Someone talked behind your back thats so high school

And you havta get them back that's also high school

I know I'll be graduating early

~Chorus~

Doesn't mean we havta act like we're in high school

Dosen't mean we havta act like we're in high school

High school is like the state and the nation

Some people never change after graduation

Beleiving in any likey shine

Makes their's lesser

Havta prove to Everyone (That theirs is better)

These are the rules the ways of high school

If someone puts you down thats so high school

Beleiving they're to good for you thats so high school

And you beleive it to, thats also high school

I know I'll be graduating early

~Chorus~

Doesn't mean we havta act like we're in high school
Doesn't mean we havta act like we're in high school

We've all got bad yearbook photos Which we forgot to let go

And Just like acne our insecurities

Should be something we left with the J.V.

So here's to letting go of year book photos

The things we cut the hose down so

That was yesterday there's always tomorrow

WE ARE TOMORROW

WE ARE TOMORROW

So I know I'll be graduating early

~Chorus~

Doesn't mean we havta act like we're in high school
Doesn't mean we havta act like we're in high school.
