Dance upon a blue day boys
The Machair flowers are white
Run across the golden sands
Just like the Rodal tide

Let Winter pass unnoticed boys
The warm rain of the Gael
Has fallen like a tide today
In the storm of Passchendaele

Chorus...
Look away Brave Boys
No shame for you to run away
Look away Brave Boys
Just be your father's son
Look away Brave Boys
No battles can be won today
Look away Brave Boys
Just be your mother's son

Petals they are falling boys
Within a red hot blaze
You'll take their kiss of liberty
And they'll steal your loving days

And then they'll drink Maclean wine boys With freedom's clapping hands
When all the Aros flowers boys
Lie in the fields of France

Chorus...
