It has been a while, since I stopped to say What it is 'bout you, that blows me away
So I'd like, to take this time, to let you know.

It's the way you laugh, it's the way you smile,
It's the way you kiss me, it drives me wild,
It's the way you take me high when I am low.

Girl now that you are here, there's nothing that I fear,
You came and took all of my pain away.

And so I just wanna stop and say thank you baby for all
that you are to me
You're my world, you're the light that guides me,
without you I could not see
So I need you to know that I love you, I love you and that I always will.
Cause you're my, my, my, my angel.

You're my everything, you're the one I need, You're the songs I sing, you're the air I breathe and I know,
That you will always be right there.

Girl it's almost like you were sent from above,
And I'm just so glad that you gave me your love.
Girl I don't know why you did it, but baby I don't care.

Cause now that you've arrived, I'm feeling so alive,
Baby you turned my life around.

And so I just wanna stop and say thank you baby for all
that you are to me
You're my world, you're the light that guides me,
without you I could not see
So I need you to know that I love you, I love you and that I always will.
Cause you're my, my, my, my angel.

My angel, you're my angel [x3]

When I was down and out, I was all alone,
And I couldn't make it, on my own, Well you came, you came, you came, and saved my life.

And so I just wanna stop and say thank you baby for all
that you are to me
You're my world, you're the light that guides me,
without you I could not see
So I need you to know that I love you, I love you and that I always will.
Cause you're my, my, my, my angel.
You're my angel
You're my angel

You're my angel, you're my angel, yeah
And I love you, I love you You came from the sky and you gave me your love, girl
you're my angel
