Chris Farron/Steve Diamond)

When I look for the love in your eyes

You turn away

And there's nothing as loud as the words

That we never say

Look at us now

Standing on the edge again

It's not too late to try again

I need some...

CHORUS

Evidence of love

To keep on going

Show me some evidence of love

And I'll be here

I still believe we can see this through

There's only so much I can do

And it doesn't make sense

Without some evidence of love

There's a frozen look on your face

Is it saying goodbye

'Cause there's nothing as cold as the ashes

When the fire has died

Talk to me now

Tell me what you're missing

Talk to me now

And try to find your heart again

I need some...

CHORUS

Stand and fight

Gotta say what's on your mind, baby

So much is on the line

Here's a chance to make it right

Talk to me now

Tell me what you're missing

Talk to me now

AND try to find your heart again

I need some...
