She's the kind of girl that you need to touch
Follow through fire
She can take it all, always gives so much
And laughs 'til she cries

If she's far away I can feel her still
Soothing my soul
When she's here with me and I'm not myself
She takes control

She's got direction, she's got devotion
She's got the rhythm, such an emotional woman
She's got the movement
She's got the power
In comes the sunlight when all the flowers unfold
I know

She's got the answer-she's got the answer
She's got the answer
She's got the answer

I am here for you, you are near to me
A mother of a child
Generations passing through you
Awake in the wild

She's got direction, she's got devotion
She's got the rhythm, such an emotional woman
She's got the movement, she's got the power
In comes the sunlight, and when all the flowers unfold
I know

She's got the answer-she's got the answer
She's got the answer
She's got the answer

She's got direction, she's got devotion
She's got the rhythm, such an emotional woman

She's got the movement, she's got the power
In comes the sunlight, and when the flowers unfold
She's got the answer-she's got the answer
She's got the answer
She's got the answer
