Graham Russell/M. Sherwood)

There's a man with the smallest of worlds in his hand

And a tear fills his eyes as he tries to hang on

Holding his world together

There's a girl in the other half of the sky

And she's wondering why her planet should sigh

Don't you want me 'round forever

CHORUS

The earth is too small to be divided

Sunrise, moonfall, deep in the heart

A part of everyone

And we can't wait anymore, the time has come

And those who need something more will feel the sun

We're sharing one

CHORUS

And we can't wait anymore, the time is now

You've got your foot in the door

Get through somehow, break through somehow
