I'm the world champion number one
Undeclared fool over you
Though I don't score
In any other thing that I do
Your love is my challenge
Every beat of each day I go through
While I hold the title
World champion fool over you

I make my stand
To make me the man
That you would call worthy of you
Should I take a fall
It won't end it all
I'd still be a number one fool

So I challenge the world
For the love of the girl
That controls everything that I do
Three cheers for the man
You hold in your hand
World champion fool over you

I make my stand
To make me the man
That you would call worthy of you
Should I take a fall
It won't end it all
I'd still be a number one fool

So I challenge the world
For the love of the girl
That controls everything that I do

Three cheers for the man
You hold in your hand
World champion fool over you

Three cheers for the man
You hold in your hand
That's me the world champion fool
