i just came up with this really neat song until i have lyrics we can't sing along so sharpen up the pencils and grab a brand new pad head down to the basement down to the lyric lab

(ch)
i'll put on my lab coat and my saftey glasses and come up with a song that will kick all your asses now comes the hard part what do i write about if the song has potential i'll leave the curses out i need a catchy chorus and a verse or two throw in a lead and than the song is through
