it seems we got the reputation as the kings of all creation you can't contain your jubilation as you view our presentation and lesser bands are lying dead in our wake raging tones of devastation is our major distillation and our hypnotic hip gyrations causes female masterbation

it seems our destiny was decided before our birth we were always meant to be the greatest band to ever walk the face of the earth sonic waves of mass destruction occur at our introduction there'll be no energy reduction once we start our only function

you can't contain your jubilation
