The rain is fallin' lightly on the buildings and the cars
I've said goodbye to city friends, department stores and bars

The lights of town are at my back, my heart is full of stars

And I'm gonna be a country girl again

Oh yes I'm gonna be a country girl again
With an old brown dog, and a big front porch
And rabbits in a pen

I tell you, all the lights on broadway's
Don't amount to an eighth a degree
An' I'm gonna be a country girl again

I spent some time a study-o, I've taken my degrees
I've memorised my fomula and my A's and B's and C's
But what I know came long ago and not from such as these

And I'm gonna be a country girl again

Oh yes I'm gonna be a country girl again
With an old brown dog and a big front porch
And rabbits in a pen

I tell you, all the lights on broadway's
Don't amount to an eighth a degree
An' I'm gonna be a country girl again

I've wandered in the hearts of men looking for the sign
But here I might learn happiness, I might learn peace of mind

The one who taught my lessons was the soft winds through the pine

And I'm gonna be a country girl again

Oh yes I'm gonna be a country girl again
With an old brown dog and a big front porch
And rabbits in a pen

I tell you, all the lights on broadway's
Don't amount to an eighth a degree
An' I'm gonna be a country girl again

Oh yes I'm gonna be a country girl again
With an old brown dog, and a big front porch
And rabbits in a pen
I tell you, all the lights on broadway's
Don't amount to an eighth a degree
An' I'm gonna be a country girl again [fade]
