Im not Li-isa
My name is Suzanne
My eyes are not blue
But mine wont leave you
'Til the sunlight
Has touched your face

She was your morning light
Her smile so warm and bright
Love for her grew
With each rising summer

And then one winter day
His hand led hers away
She left you here
Drowning in your tears
Tear-ears, where you stayed for years
Calling Li-isa, Li-i-isa

Im not Li-isa
My name is Suzanne
My eyes are not blue
But mine wont leave you
'Til the sunlight
Has touched your face

Im not Lisa
