Storms come callin'
Let me be the one
To chase any clouds that appear
Let me be the one to hold you until
Don't worry there's nothing to fear

Let me be the one when the day is done
To share your love and your lullaby wine
And it's a long long time till the end of time
When there's so much to do making sweet love to you

Like a star that you wish on
Let me be the one to know what your wishing for
And whenever your lonely let me be the one
To come to you with love

Let me be the one when the day is done
To share your love and your lullaby wine
Its a long long time to the end of time
When there's so much to do makin' sweet love to you
