Your love for people is selfish,
Why do you do these things?
Your beauty is only skin deep,
You fucking mean nothing to me.

I said that this was behind us.
Well all that shit has changed.
Strap two cinder blocks to your feet,
Drown slowly on all of your pains.

Your eyes are blackened,
But you can see right through me.
My life is crashing,
I'm falling faster than you think.

With all do respect, I thought you were great, but my attitude on life has changed (when you lie)

You make me fucking sick to my stomach, and I love it.
