"Torn Inside Out"

Im feeling torn disgusted
This is so unpredictable
I can feel the breeze is changing
Our Apocalypse is almost here

We're losing precious time
Your kiss is turning sour from lying
I don't mind being alone
This heart is covered in black

And I know, That this is fucking useless
And I feel, That we are done
Dry out your eyes and feel, my pain of a thousand knives
Our love is gone

You've chosen the wrong path to end this,
I hope you live in disgust
Take away your body and fill it with insecticide
There's nothing more that would make me happy than to see your split insides
