One morning i woke up,
I looked outside and it seemed great,
Everybody was jumping and smiling in the street
I just wondered why it could be.

What can I do to love you?
I have no idea, and i try and try,
and now I'm lost,
I just shouldn't be alive,
I just shouldn't be alive.

I went out and i felt love,
It was so strong it made me go along,
Along the street i went and went,
Till i noticed who made me feel like that,
It was you my love, it was you,
In that moment i felt like if i was the best.

What can I do to love you?
I have no idea, and i try and try,
and now I'm lost,
I just shouldn't be alive,
I just shouldn't be alive.

But it was just for a moment, then you left me again,
I was so sad when you did I forgot you but once more
we met,
I wanna love you again but I can't, i grew strong i guess,

What can I do to love you?
I have no idea, and i try and try,
and now I'm lost,
I just shouldn't be alive,
I just shouldn't be alive.
