ittle Miss Becky she's a friend of mine
She got a kick in her step she got a beautiful smile
Little Miss Becky and a bottle of rum Harvey wallbanger she's baking up fun

I'm smelling something it's hittin' that good spot on my brain
It's a ninety proof something she must have been baking it all day
I swear she's at it again, she's got a new recipe
Have you had your Harvey today?

Little Miss Becky in a rag top mustang
I tell you the truth that lady is something Little Miss Becky take a piece of the rainbow
She add a quart of the fun she add two cups of love

I'm smelling something it's hittin' that good spot on my
brain
It's a ninety proof something she must have been
baking it all day
I swear she's at it again, she got a new recipe
Have you had your Harvey today?

Come on talk to me

Little Miss Becky is a friend of mine
Little Miss Becky is a friend of mine
Oh Miss Becky!
