(n. walusko)

Came the day I saw her, walking on the water,

And I was sinking in the sand.

And I thought I caught her,

But she was a little out of hand.

She's in a citadel that she built on her own.

She let her hair down for me.

Wish I'd keep her only locked away just for me,

But she's already doing time.

She's a concrete flower,

Squeezing in the hour 'til you're gone.

You're in a citadel that you built on your own.

Just let your hair down for me.

Could be a million reasons,
But you found just one - just one.

Fleur-de-lis frozen lily

Fleur-de-lis frozen lily

Silent sands are pouring, patiently ignoring

The minutes sliding into years

From the time I lost her,

Through the door of summer where she remains...

Forever out there

Fleur-de-lis frozen lily

Forever out there

Fleur-de-lis frozen lily

Fleur-de-lis

Forever out there
