(d. sahanaja)

Fire on fire on high

Every little thing you say

Seems to melt me away

I don't know how

Every single word you write

Comes emulsion by night

What can I do?

Been around for such a long time

What can I say?

You've been right about the wrong time

Heckle or jeckle on hyde

Sketch 'em up inside a cel

'cause we're padded so well

You've blown your lines

Hid them up inside a flame

But the cake's in the rain

What can I do?

Been around for such a long time

What can I say?

You've been right about the wrong time

Red light bed might slow me down

But I wake, mountains pop out of the cake

In and around greg lake

Challenger up in the sky

Didn't even have a chance

In a spiral we dance

And yet we fly

Wasn't even worth the wait

Job at hand, job of fate

What can I do?

Been around for such a long time

What can I say?

You've been right about the wrong time
