Was I not clear
When I told you we're giving up?
I'm still here
My body's a selfish fuck
Said you're hoping
Oh, hoping for what?
I'm not going
This is where we part

My relationship with life is only physical
And if anyone should ask you can let them know

Tell the world
I'm dead and well

I have my health
And I have my hurt
Happiness
Is nothing more than a flirt
My heart beats
I breathe
Against my will I work
Undermined
By this betrayer

Do you really want to disappoint
All these vultures?
I am just here for the ride
I'm a passenger

Tell the world
I'm dead and well

My relationship with life is only physical
And if anyone should ask you can
Tell the world
I'm dead and well
