We have a talk
We break it off
Then we're resolved
I think our love

Is really really flimsy

It promises
To mend your heart
But, when you get it home
It falls apart
There are no refunds
Or lemon laws
It ripped us off
The love we bought

Was really really flimsy
Don't play rough
Now easy does it
Don't play rough
Now that's enough

I don't blame us
For giving up
It's not our fault
Our love was just

Really really flimsy

Don't play rough
Now easy does it

Don't play rough

Now that's enough

Really really flimsy

Were we really flimsy?
