When you're down
And there's no one who cares
Nothing's right
And no one hears your sigh
Time is no
No healer anymore
You recognize
That you are just alone

And I know that
I know there's no one who will care
Yes I know that

Refrain:
You feel like dying
Lay down your head
There's no one who will care
You're just alone

Now is the time
To finish your last deep sigh
It's obvious
There's no reason to stay

Refrain (2x)

And I know that and I know that

So here you are
And no one who is there for you
Full of grain
You hate as big as it could be Crying out
All your wounds they are so tight
So push them down
Forget yourself and die

Refrain

You feel like dying, lay down your head,
there's no one who will care

You feel like dying, lay down your head
You feel like dying,
there's no one who will care,
you're just alone

...and I know that...
