1. Where's the smile gone that made me smiling too?
Where's the time gone that showed me that you love me too?
Where's the sun gone bringing light into my day and showing me moments of a new way life can be?

Refrain

Come on girl just try,
you can touch the sky,
you can learn to fly and the stars will be your guide.
Close your eyes and try,
you can touch the sky;
even miles away you'll see together you and me.

2. If we believin
there's a way to do a dry so call out my name and everytime let me by your side there's on your morning bringing light into the day and showing you moments how you or your life could be

Refrain

Brigde

Everytime (everytime)
when i see you shine
i know you will bring they all together Everytime (evreytime)
when i see your smile even if you for a wake you won't be by them

2xRefrain

together you and me
