Listen for me on the radio
I'll be singing your name
Singing sweet and low
Listen for me on the radio
Too little too late for you to know

On the way back from your house
Think of what you said
Your words went through my head

On the way back from your house
Turn on the stereo
Our song was playing

Listen for me on the radio
I'll be singing your name
Singing sweet and low
Listen for me on the radio
Too little too late for you to know

On the way back from your house
I found out its true
There is more to me than you
On the way back from your house
Quarter after three
And you still say it

Listen for me on the radio
I'll be singing your name
Singing sweet and low
Listen for me on the radio
Too little too late for you to know

No one cared to see inside me
Look into my heart
It's too late to take it back
So finish what you start

You ? [suck?]

Listen for me on the radio
I'll be singing your name

Singing sweet and low
Listen for me on the radio
Too little too late for you to know
