These things take time
But I don't mind
These things take time
Till you find you gotta love while there's still time
And they say it's not the way you're supposed to fall in love
But I say it's a better love than anyone? [better lovin' anyone?]

These things take time
But I don't mind
These things take time
Till you find you can see it in my lives
And they say it's not the way you're supposed to fall in live
But I say it's a better love than anyone?

Cause she's got a way of holding on
Cause she's got a way of holding on
She's got a way of holding on to me

My heart could find my body inside
But I'll have this time till your mind can make it through a night
And they say it's not the way that you're supposed to fall in love
But I say it's a better love than anyone?
Cause she's got a way of holding on
Cause she's got a way of holding on
She's got a way of holding on to me
To me, ohhh

Time comes and I showed my heart
I'll just keep waiting for you
Even if you say it's never true
Hold your breath and I'll come back to you
Time comes and I showed my heart
I'll just keep waiting for you
Even if you say you'll never come
Hold your breath cause you're the only one

Cause she's got a way of holding on

Cause she's got a way of holding on
She's got a way of holding on to me
