You and me, me and you
There's so much that we've been through,
through it all I've come to understand Gods love.
And if tomorrow never comes know this twice, just know this once.
Knowing you has made me able to go on.

You and me, me and you
There couldn't be a better two,
to be blessed and know the meaning of true love.
And if you leave me I feel scared,
fall apart so unprepared.
But I dare to make it trough all on my own.
Yes I dare to make it trough on my own.
