Visit "Spring" on MotoLyrics.com

All the way on my journey so far
I was searching for your essence
Now I know you were here all the time
But I could never catch your presence

Join me now, there is no worry
I'm your present, you're my fairy
The path we walk is neverending
All we have is the beginning

I will show you trees and mountains
Brooks and rivers, mystic fountains
Plant your seeds, this field is ours
Show me spring, burst into flowers

Hold my hands, I will take you home
Here you'll find your peace, here you will find your soil
We will show this world the truth
That lies in our hearts, the unity of me and you
