It's that time of year

Christmas is here

everybody's back together again

Spreading the joy

Spreading the cheer

Toasting to another year's end

So thankful for

All of my friends

Oh.

When the party is over

the night's just begun

I promise the best part is

yet to come

slow dance together

two become one

that's what we've waited all day for

no one else but me and you

than hold you all through the night under my tree

bring along the mistle toe

i'll show how good it could be i wish that santa could be here to see it's beautiful under my tree the fire's aglow
we've got Nat King Cole singing us a song from his heart sleigh bells and snow makes us feel close to the stars
when the carols are sung and the fire has died
the amber stills burns with the love in our eyes cherish the moment
savor the night
than hold you all through the night uunder my tree
no one but me

sweet rendezvous

under my tree

than make all your dreams come true

such a cozy rendezvous

just relax, enjoy the view

it's beautiful, beautiful, beautiful

love and good cheer
