I'm so used to being that girl,
Who knows where she's going,
Who knows who she wants to be.
She'd independent,
She doesn't need anybody.
But somethings changed,
What happened to that personality?
Someone came and swept her off of her feet...

She can't act herself right now.
She's acting like something shes not,
Cuz she doesn't feel good enough for him.

But he takes her breath away.
She can't give him anything
To make him feel the same way...
She can't tell him how she feels.
She can't let him know,
She wasn't acting like herself.
But she's so much better than this.

I'm so used to being that girl,
Whose told that shes perfect,
Who knows what to say and how to feel.
But when shes around him,
All those past perfections go away.
She's starting over making some big mistakes.

Now she...
Hurts so bad right now...
Cuz she couldn't act like herself.

She's dying as every moment fades away...
She's crying as he walks away...

She cant tell him how she feels,
She cant let him know,
She wasnt acting like herself.
But she's so much better than this...
