CABOOSE TRAIN

I'm losing consciousness, I'm about to die
need an alibi...yeah
I'm travelling 'round the world, in an aeroplane in a caboose train...yeah

I'm at the shopping mall, head to the makeup stall to use the testers...yeah You say you're right (you're wrong), but you won't be for long here come the reasons...yeah

[Chorus]

Would you like to dance, can you take me home Get me out of here, i feel so alone i have lost my way, don't you dare ignore am i having fun?, have i asked you this before...?

I'm Going nil by mouth, but i'm eating food just not in the mood...yeah walked into a glass door, slipped and hit the floor what'cha gonna' do...yeah

[Chorus]

And when the world is spinning 'round turning me upside down no i wont cry
a whirlpool of insanity, but there is only you and me there's no need to lie my inspiration's run dry

[Chorus x3]

I'm losing consciousness, i'm about to die
need an alibi...yeah....
