WISH OURSELVES AWAY

Do you ever feel as though,
We're going back to the place where we used to live,
Ghosts in every room,
Listen now to everything we ever said
How could i forget?,
Your voice still echoes round inside my head,
I am listening now

You said,
If we could wish ourselves away,
Just put it down to history,
So take me back where we started from,
To the place where we were young,
You turn to me as if to say,
What if we could wish ourselves away?

Give me a heart of stone,
Give me a briefcase and i'll be a business man,
When everything i know,
Is burning down,
Now i think i know how you feel (oh),
Am i just talking to myself?,
I dont know,
And in my mind i know exactly who you are,
God knows iv tried,
But i dont know where to start

You say if we could wish ourselves away,
Just put it down to history,
So take me back where we started from,
To the place where we were young,
You turn to me as if to say,
What if we could wish ourselves away?

So come on,
It's alright,
Alright,
See the lights,
Tell yourself it's alright,

Tell yourself one more time
