(music arcwelder, words s macdonald)

There's something happening to me that we should be talking about

I can't eat or sleep you don't think anything's wrong

If I want to talk to you looks like I'll have to take a number

At the rate it's going you'll never hear me sing this song

Why should I feel this way

Why should I feel this way

What we have happening here are two sets of expectations

What's so casual to you means a lot to me

I simply don't understand the situation

Is this the way that I always heard it should be

Why should I feel this way

Why should I feel this way

talking about

I can't eat or sleep you don't think anything's wrong

If I want to talk to you looks like I'll have to take a

At the rate it's going you'll never hear me sing this
song

Why should I feel this way

Why should I feel this way
