(music arcwelder, words s macdonald)

Now the closets are empty used to be full

Empty lover standing where once there was a soul

Touch down come down

You can lose your footing when you chase after a

Emotions forming gateways not as open as they seem

[chorus]

All I want is some body to take me in their arms say
'sall right

I have wanted that all a long don't worry I won't hold my breath

Why waste time and money what we know is the truth
Funny all of our lives when they blast through the roof
Come down touch down

A body at rest stays at rest all decided long ago
Nothing in the language how well I know

[chorus]
