

World War Four "Thousand Miles"

Before there was a leaf on the ground before there was a star in the sky you knew my name and all would be you knew my words and all i would know before day turns to night i will pray to see the light of your glorious fame of your glorious name and i will walk a thousand miles just to see you

i will tear down the walls just to meet you
i will shout it from the tallest feet shout it till my knees grow weak i'll do it all do it all for you

before there was no way out of sin before there was a struggle within you sent your son to die for my sins out of love and compassion for all men
