I don't forgive easily
And I won't always understand
We've seen it all now
And heard your lies
We've covered every track
We're sick and tired

But I see what you're made of
You can't hide that from me
And I know what your mind does
It takes control of me

I'm starting to worry
About you lately - you're not yourself
There's been a change in you
Someone I thought I knew
Has all but gone, has all but gone,

And I see what you're made of
You can't hide that from me
And I know what your mind does
Yeah it takes control of me

(You can't hide that
You can't hide that
You can't hide that from me)
Oh-oooh
You can't hide that
You can't hide that
You can't hide that from me

From me, from me,
No you can't hide that
No you can't hide that from me,
