Pass me the bottle
Pour me the wine
I might be face down on the table, but I assure you I'm doing just fine
Give me a cigarette
You heard what I said
'Cause I'm going into battle
With the demons in my head
'Cause I've seen trouble
I've seen more than my share
I said I've seen trouble and I don't Care any more
No, I don't care any more

You don't like the people
(People)
I call my friends
(My friends)
You said it was those old drunken ???? that sent me over the edge
Well, we've all got troubles
Some of us more than our share
I said we've all got trouble and I don't Care any more
No, I don't care any more

I gave you the power, but you won't release me
Now, you've got the power
You won't release me

You say I'm outspoken
That I'm loud, that I'm obtuse
While I'm here all screwed up, baby
Tell me, what's your excuse?
Gimme carbohydrates
At four in the morning
Gimme carbohydrates 'cause I don't Care any more
No, I don't care any more

Rain it down on me, baby

Gimme all I can bear
But watch out where you're standing, you might get vertigo up there
You might get vertigo up there
You might get vertigo up there
You might get vertigo up there
