I know the times are tough
And dreams can cost me dearly
Well my dreams have been turned and tossed
But now they unfold clearly
Ambition is a beast we almost ta-amed
Become so obsessed with it we lose the game

One day the wind blows hot and co-o-o-old
Life can be sweet and sour
But I am in control
It can chill me to the bone
Give me wings to fly on my ow-ow-own
I am in control

Well I keep my head ahead of the ti-imes
'Cause where one door slams another opens up wi-ide
When the green-eyed monsters knock at my door-oor
They wonder what on earth I came here for

One day the wind blows hot and co-o-o-old
Life can be sweet and sour
But I am control
It can chill me to the bone
Give me wings to fly on my ow-ow-ow-ow-own
I am in control

One day the wind blows hot and co-o-o-old
(I am in control)
Life can be sweet and sour
But I am control (I am in control)

One day the wind blows hot and co-o-o-old
(I am in control)
Life can be sweet and sour
But I am control

It can chill me to the bone
Give me wings to fly on my ow-ow-ow-ow-own
I am in control...
