I made a bad mistake it seems
I let a thief into my dreams
He then decreed a melting pot of gold into a cow

He stole my eyes and left me where
The many years would fade my hair
Once I was a child so fare, but he's not with me now

Ding-dong the witch is dead I saw her melt away
Ding-dong the witch is dead all the bad renters pay
Ding-dong the witch is dead
The bones are broken in my bed
The witch's blood was always on your head
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I always thanked you for the ride
As we careened from side to side
Drunk on all that we imbibed, paranoid til now.

Angry mothers on the wall
Spinning like a carousel
Knocked me down and made me fall, seizures racked with sound

Ding-dong the witch is dead I saw her melt away
Ding-dong the witch is dead all the bad renters pay
Ding-dong the witch is dead
Ding-dong the witch is dead
Ding-dong the witch is dead
Ding-dong the witch is dead
Ding-dong the witch is dead
Ding-dong the witch is dead
Ding-dong the wicked witch is dead, she's dead.
