Should I go outside, should I get something to eat Should I try to smoke a rette, should I wash my smelly feet Should I comb my ratty hair, should I shave this scraggly beard Should I try to go to work, man this brainstorming is weird

Should I fix another drink, should I peek outside the door
Should I try to go to work, God I don't care anymore Should walk around in circles or take off all my clothes Should I buy a bunch of cocaine and inhale it up myâ€¦no
Should I try to find me a woman, or maybe masterbate Should I try to get my peace of mind, oh Lord it's just too late Should I go outside and attempt to get a tan Or just bob my head in circles as I watch the ceiling fan I think I'll give the dog a bath, maybe shave off all his hair Should I mope and whine and weep and cuss or change my underwear Should I lay down on the couch and watch the TV all day long Should I rob a couple of B-Quicks man this brainstorming is wrong

Should I go back to school or have I ever been My body feels like jello, man I'm brainstorming again Should I feel this way forever, should I go out to the zoo I hope one night when you're alone, the brainstorm will f you
