"Goodbye"

I'm not surprised your alibis are tighter than a drum
Remember it was you and I, we lied when we were young
I don't want to say goodbye another time around
Whatcha gonna do when I say "goodbye"?
Whatcha gonna do when I'm gone?
I'm so sad that I let you down

I did not have a ticket when the circus came to town
I did not know you were alone and I was just a clown
Now some questions nag me like a blister on my knee
Whatcha gonna do when I say "goodbye"?
Whatcha gonna do when I'm free?
I'm so sad, I let you down
I'm so sad that I let you down

Stones all in my passway make it harder than it seems Makes me realize I chased an impossible dream
My expectations surface well below the cream
Whatcha gonna do when I say "goodbye"?
Whatcha gonna do when I scream
I'm so sad, I let you down
I'm so sad, I let you down
I'm so sad, I let you down
I'm so sad that I let you down
