

Woven Hand "Cripplegate"

Shake, sleep, wool and glass
Hung on nails, here and there
Wails the wall I pass

In you alone, in you alone
There is no harm
In you alone

In you alone, in you alone
There is no harm
In you alone

With your sound picture frame
Your burlap silken scarf
Right hand, stare down the left
I wish to know nothing here
Save the blood of the cross

In you alone, in you alone
There is no harm
In you alone

In you alone, in you alone
There is no harm
In you alone
