Wind lift my bone
But I rise only
Just above the tracks
Jump on my boy's back

He hit rock with stick
Through my body thick
With growing things
Walk over old wings
And hey, no princess and hero here, my brother
In my dreams we annoy each other
Slap me on the head and say take care
I say it's fine wondering can I bear?
The place our pasts will take us

He is blind
Arms held in kind of
Holy pose I slap myself
The pattern shows

I try to know the gifts I bring
To this thing
Without a name
We play the almost game
And hey, no princess and hero here, my brother
In my dreams we annoy each other
Slap me on the head and say take care
I say it's fine wondering can I bear?
The place our pasts will take us

We circle each other in this gravel parking lot
Our bodies soldered, our minds in fearful thought
There is ancestry behind our kisses
Whose crimes are we?
Who brought these animals to lay at our backs?
Who can wake the wild cat?
Tell me how are you
Going to be with me?

And hey, no princess and hero here, my brother
In my dreams we annoy each other

Slap me on the head and say take care
I say it's fine wondering can I bear?
The place our pasts will take us

The skin he knows is paper
The hand he holds is mine
The film is in his camera
Can I keep myself this time?

The skin he knows is paper
The hand he holds is mine
The film is in his camera
Can I keep myself this time?

The skin he knows is paper
The hand he holds is mine
The film is in his camera
Can I keep myself this time?

The skin he knows is paper
The hand he holds is mine
The film is in his camera
Can I keep myself this time?

The skin he knows is paper
The hand he holds is mine
The film is in his camera
Can I keep myself this time?

The skin he knows is paper
The hand he holds is mine
The film is in his camera
Can I keep myself this time?

Fast along this strange highway
Music throws my life away
My smile grows uncontrollably
With you I've been the truth in me

Fast along this strange highway
Music throws my life away
My smile grows uncontrollably
With you I've been the truth in me

Fast along this strange highway
Music throws my life away
My smile grows uncontrollably
With you I've been the truth in me

Fast along this strange highway
Music throws my life away

My smile grows uncontrollably
With you Iâ€™ve been the truth in me

Fast along this strange highway
Music throws my life away
My smile grows uncontrollably
With you Iâ€™ve been the truth in me
